Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 294 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. All her life, Jordi Hemphill was told that she needed to change to fit in and be accepted. She talked too much, laughed too loud, and most definitely, indisputably and inexcusably weighed too much. In fact, she wore her size-20 clothes without so much as an apology. She didnt care to fit in. She didnt want to be beautiful. Instead, she wanted to wear her hair in funky colors, she itched for tattoos and piercings, and dreamed of a life much bigger than working at the local Burger Palace for minimum wage. She had been born with the voice of a superstar, and something inside her told her it was OK to dream big, even if she had to do it in secret. On her eighteenth birthday, she takes every last cent she has and buys a one-way ticket for Los Angeles. She is sure her talent will get her noticed by those more open-minded to see it. Then and only then will she show all the naysayers in her hometown that she was a somebody no matter what they thought. Unfortunately Los Angeles isnt any more welcoming. Jordi didnt fit into their pop machine no matter how well she sang. Other pop princess had the full package, whereas Jordi still needed to change if she wanted her dreams to come true. It takes a plus-size TV producer to take a chance on her, casting her for a reality talent show called Fierce, which put attitude and talent far above the traditional pop star image. Thanks to Giovanni Carnevale, the lead singer of Dreaming in Blue and Fierces rock star judge, Jordi gets a chance to fight for her place on...
