The author tells a touching, heart rending, remarkable story of her thin, tall, beautiful heroine, Stefania Czarnowska based on the true story of her grandmother. The journey begins when she is eighteen years old in May of 1901 and arrives on the Fells Point Pier in America alone from Poland with a baby boy, Stanislaw. She is sponsored by a friend to come to this small town in America. It is home to many Polish Americans and is booming with commerce. The author returns to her compelling story of her heroine's life in America, arousing all of your emotions of love and passion, joy and laughter, tragedy and sadness. Stefania's fear as a mother, as her only son enlists in the Navy in World War I, is exacerbated when she is unable to convince him otherwise. The heroine is strong, stoic, undaunted, and resolute in handling all the twists and turns life brings her way, facing them head on with her quiet tears, not allowing them to take away her peace and happiness. In the book you'll get to...
