By Unknown Author

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Berkshire County: Pittsfield Public Schools This outline was compiled nine or ten years ago by the teachers of Grade IV., at the suggestion of the Superintendent and in co-operation with him, and was for some years available thru mimeograph copies in the hands of the teachers. In 1901, it was printed for the use of the pupils. In the revision for printing, numerous changes were made in the text and many illustrative extracts were added. In the present edition some further revisions have been made. As expressed in the annual report of 1894, the motive is threefold: 1. To train the pupils to observe and think, and to express their thoughts freely and correctly both orally and in writing. 2. To give local and practical illustrations of geographical terms and ideas, thus building the information and culture work of the first three years into a foundation for broader knowledge. 3. To give the pupils such a knowledge of their own home as we expect them to get later of the whole world, that it may...

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
