Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 43 pages. A Short Science Fiction Story set 300 decades into Earth's future toward the end of what had become a thousand year hostile alien space warrior invasion it was realized the planet just might be doomed. The constant alien evasions, fighting ships and explosions just outside the planet's atmosphere had caused grievous Earth changes. The Earth's ozone layer now pink was a sure sign humanity was, if nothing else, on the verge of being extinguished. Three planets spewing forth three races of space soldiers engaged in battle after battle in what appears to be a war of certain extermination for them all. Just how will it play itself out This millennium year conflict chronicles the final days of what seems to be a forever war between the human race and other aliens. It documents the final desperate space battles for a planet plunging swiftly into the abyss of total extermination. Is it even possible for any commander in these destructive final days leading human or alien soldiers to celebrate victory Only the most brave and enduring shall realize the outcome of events.
